Who can say that these excesses are not often followed by those dreadful diseases—INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION! The records of the IN-SANE ASYLUMS, and the melancholy deaths by cox-sumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these as-sertions. In Lunatic asylums the most richar-cholly exhibition appears. A picture of New York.

(From the Tribune of the 3d inst.) Ten thousand hardened and hopeless female outcaste warm the street at night; two thousand children, under the guise of peddlers, from the ages of ten to sixteen, penetrate every public building, store and office in the city, to beg, steal, spy for burglars and on their own account practice those vices which cannot be named in respectable language; five thousand great and small gamblers prey upon the credulous and the infatuated, standing all day at the doors of their dens in Broadway, as well known in person and profession as the Mayor himself; ten thousand laze, drunken, thieving short-boys, swill-boys, killers, roughs, and rowdies of other names, lounge on rum-cursed corners of the streets, making day disgusting, night hideous, and travel dangerous to all who can be suspected of having respectability or money; thousands of emigrant swindlers, mock auctioneers, lottery-dealers, policy-backers, pickpockets, ball thieves, burglars, wharfrats, area-sneaks, pimps and vampyres, practice their knaveries as openly and with as little fear of punishment as though they were engaged in the most virtuous and legitimate of human pursuits. The swell-mob of London, flying from the argus eyes of a real police, and expatriated by the bullet and the hemp 1101.1.4 N 19 of the Vigilance Committee, are received here with open arms, parade our streets under not only the toleration, but the protection and personal friendship of the police, carry our priminary elections, and fill high places on our nominating committees. With a bow-shot of these pilaces, is the other side of the world: for brocade, rags; for diamonds, dirt; for Johannisberger, whisky; for millionairies, beggars; for divines, devils; JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!!! for Aspasias, drabs; with here and there some poor, starving wretch, painfully enacting the "Song of the Shirt", her besieged virtue glimmering in the misery of this taginble hell, like the fabled jewel in a dunghiil. And over all, we have a set of men called rulers, wrangling like hungry dogs for the public purse; lying and cheating for advancement; plotting to

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every herve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in STOMACH OR LIVER,
